

ORDINANCE 15-

TO AMEND TITLE 4 OF THE BLOOMINGTON MUNICIPAL CODE ENTITLED “BUSINESS LICENSES AND REGULATIONS”

- Re: Chapter 4.16 (Itinerant Merchants, Solicitors and Peddlers – deleted and replaced);
Chapter 4.28 (Mobile Vendors - added); and Chapter 4.30 (Pushcarts - added)

- Whereas, the Mayor and Common Council are concerned for the health, safety, peace and welfare of the citizens of the City of Bloomington; and
- Whereas, the Supreme Court of the United States and other federal courts have determined that door-to-door solicitation is commercial speech, protected under the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; and
- Whereas, the Mayor and Common Council recognize the First Amendment protection door-to-door solicitors have; however, both the Mayor and Common Council further recognize the need to protect the health, safety, peace and welfare of the citizens of the City of Bloomington; and
- Whereas, the proposed ordinance balances the First Amendment protection of the commercial solicitors and the health, safety, pace and welfare of the citizens of the City of Bloomington; and
- Whereas, the purpose of the regulations contained in this Ordinance is to regulate activities which are commercial in nature and are not intended to prohibit free speech or any other constitutional right; and
- Whereas, the primary purpose of the public streets and sidewalks is the use by vehicular and pedestrian traffic; and
- Whereas, the number of persons using the public streets and sidewalks in the City of Bloomington in recent years has increased dramatically due to an expanded commercial use and a growing tourism industry and has resulted in an increase in congestion on these streets and sidewalks; and
- Whereas, in order to protect the unique character of the City of Bloomington, the City finds it necessary to regulate solicitors, pushcarts, and mobile vendor units inside of the City’s jurisdictional limits; and
- Whereas, licensing and regulating door-to-door sales seeks to protect the residents of the City of Bloomington from possible fraud, misrepresentation, and nuisance; and
- Whereas, in an effort to defray the costs of regulating the businesses identified in this Ordinance reasonable fees are being proposed; and

Whereas, one of the primary purposes of this Ordinance is to promote the public interest by enhancing the attractiveness of the City and by providing opportunities for creative, colorful and pedestrian-focused commercial activities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BLOOMINGTON, MONROE COUNTY, INDIANA, THAT:

SYNOPSIS

This ordinance does three things. First, it repeals the chapter regulating itinerant merchants, solicitors and peddlers and replaces it with a chapter regulating only solicitors. Solicitors have been defined to mean a person who requests anything of value for the taking of orders of goods or the immediate delivery of goods. Second, it adds a new chapter to the Title which regulates the licensing of mobile food vendors. Third, it adds a new chapter to the Title which regulates the licensing of pushcart operators. The purposes of these changes are twofold: (1) to streamline the current licensing and permitting process for these types of activities; and (2) to encourage, within necessary perimeters, the development of smaller businesses that enhance the community.
